Deaveru is an entertainer a role model a trendsetter a street poet a survivor and still a gentlemen from Oakland California but I reside in my Second Home that I call home Atlanta, Georgia

How did you discover your musical talent?

I did my first video with TBHM Wet called the sampler 2 in 2010 that got a 100k+ plays on youtube Lil B the based god tweeted about it on twitter and showed love to the video and when I would go places people would rap me the lyrics and that's when I knew I could have an influence on the rap game

Who has been your greatest inspirations musically and why?

Tupac because of his ability to paint the perfect picture Dynamically and be a leader for our race and rebel on anyone who doubted him and Mac dre because he was the first soulja boy but in a gangster independent Bay Area Hyphy way.

What do you feel you offer the music industry that we don't already have in other performers?

My genre of music Krunkphy which is

Krunk and Hyphy blended to make the ultimate style, sound, and character known as Krunkphy.

Have you encountered any problems in getting to this point in your career?

Yeah it has been a walk of faith from being homeless to staying on peoples couches to jail it made me built to last to be polished as an artist

What do you want people get from your music?

Energy to have fun and forget about whatever your going through and turn up music is the one thing in the world that has that effect on us and I want to be that effect on people when they hear my music

When can we expect some new music from you?
